Key information on addition of new policy / procedure and deletion or variation of existing policy / procedures shall be indicated for version control purpose.

4.0 Corruption Risk Assessment Approach

- a. PLANTIE had established a Corruption Risk Management Framework guided by ISO 37001:2016 and Guidelines on Adequate Procedures. The framework outlines the governance, structure and policies, assessment process, and integration of risk management into the Group operations activities to promote continuous monitoring on the corruption risk identified. The corruption risk assessment process is depicted in the diagram below:

- b. The MD shall oversee and ensure accountability of corruption risk identified with the corresponding controls to be implemented.
- c. The risk parameters (i.e. financial impact, customer relationship and reputation / media) are established to estimate the consequences of a risk, namely likelihood of occurrence and criticality of impact, based on PLANTIE's risk appetite.
- d. Risk Register is developed to capture potential corruption scheme(s), possible root causes, existing key controls and impact are maintained for the Group. The risks are then evaluated based on the likelihood of occurrence and criticality of impact (i.e., Low, Medium, High and Extreme) to provide a basis for Management in strategic decision-making process and mitigation of corruption risks.
- e. Human Resource ("HR") Manager shall conduct regular risk assessment i.e. on a yearly basis and/or when there is a change in law or circumstance of the business to ensure the identified corruption risks are remains relevant and adequate mitigating controls are discussed and implemented.
- f. Specific anti-corruption plan shall be identified by the respective HODs and reported to the MD/ HR Manager for review and monitoring.

5.0 Gift and Corporate Hospitality

PLANTIE Group recognises the importance of gift and corporate hospitality giving/ acceptance, donation, and sponsorship activities to maintain good rapport with its vendors, customers, and government officials. The policies and procedures set out below are to safeguard the Group's reputation and to protect its employee from allegation of soliciting bribe, corruption or exercising undue influence on external party(s) for personal gain.

5.1 Purchase of Gift and Corporate Hospitality

- a. Purchase requisition pertaining gift and corporate hospitality shall be a reasonable amount, subject to the approval of the MD and in line with the Limit of Authority ("LOA"). Such gifts and hospitality shall fulfil ALL the following conditions prior to approval:
 - i. They are intended to maintain good rapport with the vendors/ customers of the Group and government officials;
 - ii. They are limited, customary and lawful under the circumstances;
 - iii. They do not have or perceived to be affecting action(s) or decision(s) of the receiving party;
 - iv. There shall be no expectation of any specific favour, benefit or advantages from the intended recipients;
 - v. There shall not be any corrupt/ criminal intent; and
 - vi. The giving out of gift or corporate hospitality shall be transparent.
- b. Purchase of gift or corporate hospitality, subject to the fulfilment of condition as stipulated in Clause 5.1(a), requires pre-approval from the requesting department's HOD. Purchase request of corporate hospitality (including entertainment), however, is restricted to Manager and above as indicated in PLANTIE Group Employee's Handbook.
- c. Purchase of gift or corporate hospitality, subject to the fulfilment of condition as stipulated in Clause 5.1(a), requires pre-approval from the requesting department's HOD.

Purchase request of corporate hospitality (including entertainment), however, is restricted to the following, as indicated in PLANTIE Employee's Handbook:

- i. Sales personnel (Executive and above); and
 - ii. Non-sales personnel (Manager and above).
- d. Any purchase of gift or corporate hospitality in nature exceeding the following approval limits per transaction basis requires second approval from the MD.

Nature of purchase	Approval limits
General customer (incurred locally)	Up to RM100.00
Customer at Manager, HOD or Executive level (incurred locally)	Up to RM500.00
Lunch for customers (incurred overseas)	Up to RM500.00
Dinner for customers (incurred overseas)	Up to RM1,000.00

- e. Purchase requisition pertaining to gift and corporate hospitality for government official from the public sector, it shall be restricted to statutory limit of the respective countries. However, gift in the form of cash or cash equivalent shall never be given or offered to any public or government officials.
- f. Purchase requisition on gift or corporate hospitality shall be indicated with purpose of requisition, including client or vendor name or representative details.
- g. In the event of any dispute between any internal practice, existing policy and or procedure already imbedded within the constitution of the organisation prior to the commencement of this ABAC Policy & Guidelines, the limits set in Section 5 of this ABAC Policy & Guidelines shall prevail over all other documentation.

5.2. Gift Acceptance

- a. Under no circumstances that an employee of the Group shall receive or solicit for personal gift from an external party.
- b. Although the general principle is to immediately refuse or return such gifts, accepting a gift on behalf of PLANTIE Group is allowed only in very limited circumstances, whereby refusing the gift is likely to seriously offend and may sever PLANTIE's business relationship with the Third Party. However, in no circumstances may an employee, director or his/her family/household members accept gifts in the form of cash or cash equivalent.
- c. Any gift received by an employee of the Group from external party(s) requires declaration to the HR Manager.

5.3. Entertainment Acceptance

- a. Employees of the Group shall exercise proper care and judgment prior to accepting entertainment from external party. This is vital to safeguard the Group's reputation and to protect its employee from allegation of soliciting bribe or corruption.
- b. Any entertainment received by an employee of the Group from external party(s) requires declaration to the HR Manager.

6.0 Corporate Social Responsibility

- a. All Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”) related sponsorships and donations shall be made in accordance with PLANTIE’s policies with prior approval by authorised personnel in line with the LOA.
- b. Given the nature of PLANTIE Group’s business, government agencies or local authority bodies may request for sponsorship and/ or donations in respect of CSR events. As part of PLANTIE Group’s commitment to corporate social responsibility and sustainable development, as a general matter, PLANTIE Group provides such assistance in appropriate circumstances and in an appropriate manner.
- c. Such requests shall be examined for legitimacy and not be made to improperly influence a business outcome. The proposed recipient shall be a legitimate organisation and appropriate due diligence shall be conducted in particular to ascertain whether any public officials are affiliated with the organisation. Any red flags shall be resolved before committing any funds to the programme. Even requests determined to be legitimate shall be carefully structured to ensure that the benefits reach their intended recipients.
- d. If any employees or Directors are in any doubt as to whether a charitable contribution or social benefit is appropriate, Management shall seek legal consultation accordingly.

6.1 Donation and Sponsorship

- a. Employees shall ensure that all sponsorships and donations are not used as a subterfuge for bribery or used to circumvent or avoid any of the provisions of the Code of Conduct (“CoC”), including in particular, the prohibition on bribery. PLANTIE Group needs to be certain that donations to foreign-based charities or beneficiaries are not disguised illegal payments to government officials, and shall ensure that the charity does not act as a conduit to fund illegal activities in violation of international anti-money laundering, anti-terrorism and other applicable laws.
- b. The Policy & Guidelines, in accordance with PLANTIE Group’s commitment to contribute to the community coupled with its values of integrity and transparency, all sponsorships and donations shall comply with the following:
 - ensure such contributions are allowed by applicable laws;
 - obtain all the necessary internal and external authorisations;
 - be made to well established entities having an adequate organisational structure to guarantee proper administration of the funds;
 - be accurately stated in the company’s accounting books and records; and
 - not to be used as a means to cover up an undue payment or bribery;

Examples of red flags to look out for are as follows:

- The proposed recipient /organisation have affiliations with a Public Official or their relatives are involved;
- The contribution is made on behalf of a Public Official;
- There is a risk of a perceived improper advantage for PLANTIE Group; or
- The proposed recipient is based in a high-risk country, the request comes from a high-risk country or the activity takes place in a high-risk country.

- c. PLANTIE Group requires employees to use good judgment and common sense in assessing the requests. When in doubt, employees shall seek for legal advice or escalate the matter to the MD or Director to determine the authenticity of such requests.
- d. Donation and sponsorship are only permissible with prior approval by the MD or Director. All donations and sponsorship payment shall be supported with an official letter of request from the requesting external party and proof of receipt.
- e. Donation or sponsorship which are more than RM10,000 are subject to approval by the Directors.

6.2. Education Sponsorships

PLANTIE Group has a sponsorship programme with the objective to provide educational opportunities to deserving students to enable them to realise their potential and to contribute to the growth of PLANTIE Group and the nation.

The awarding of scholarships shall be based on strict guidelines and due diligence to ensure that only the most qualified and deserving students receive the scholarship award. This is crucial to ensure that no element of corruption is involved in the giving out of scholarships. The selection of sponsorship recipients shall be based on approved criteria such as academic qualifications and assessment results.

The process of selection shall be transparent and the reasons for selection shall be properly recorded. If the sponsorships are to be awarded to foreign public officials or persons associated with foreign public officials' caution shall be exercised to ensure that the awarding of sponsorship would not violate any local laws and shall be in compliance with the approved sponsorship policy and guidelines of PLANTIE Group.

7.0 Facilitation and Extortion Payments

- a. Facilitation payment to external party, in particular, government officials, is strictly prohibited as it is seen as a form of bribery and corruption. Extortion payment to external party, on the other hand, is not categorised as an illegal activity by legal means, as the health, safety, and liberty of one is paramount.
- b. The Accounts Manager shall maintain a record of such event and report the payment to the relevant authority.

7.1. Facilitation Payment

- a. Facilitation payment to external party, in particular, government officials, is strictly prohibited as it is seen as a form of bribery and corruption, unless it can be proven that such payment is legitimate and supported by an official receipt.
- b. Facilitation payment shall not be in any way or form be disguised or translated in personnel remuneration package.
- c. Subject to the fulfilment of criteria in Clause 7.1(a), facilitation payment request may be approved by the MD.

7.2. Exception to Facilitation Payment (Extortion Payment)

- a. Extortion payment to any party shall not be made unless the employee(s) and or their families health, safety and or liberty are threatened.
- b. Subject to the fulfilment of criteria in Clause 7.2(a), extortion payment request may be approved by the MD.

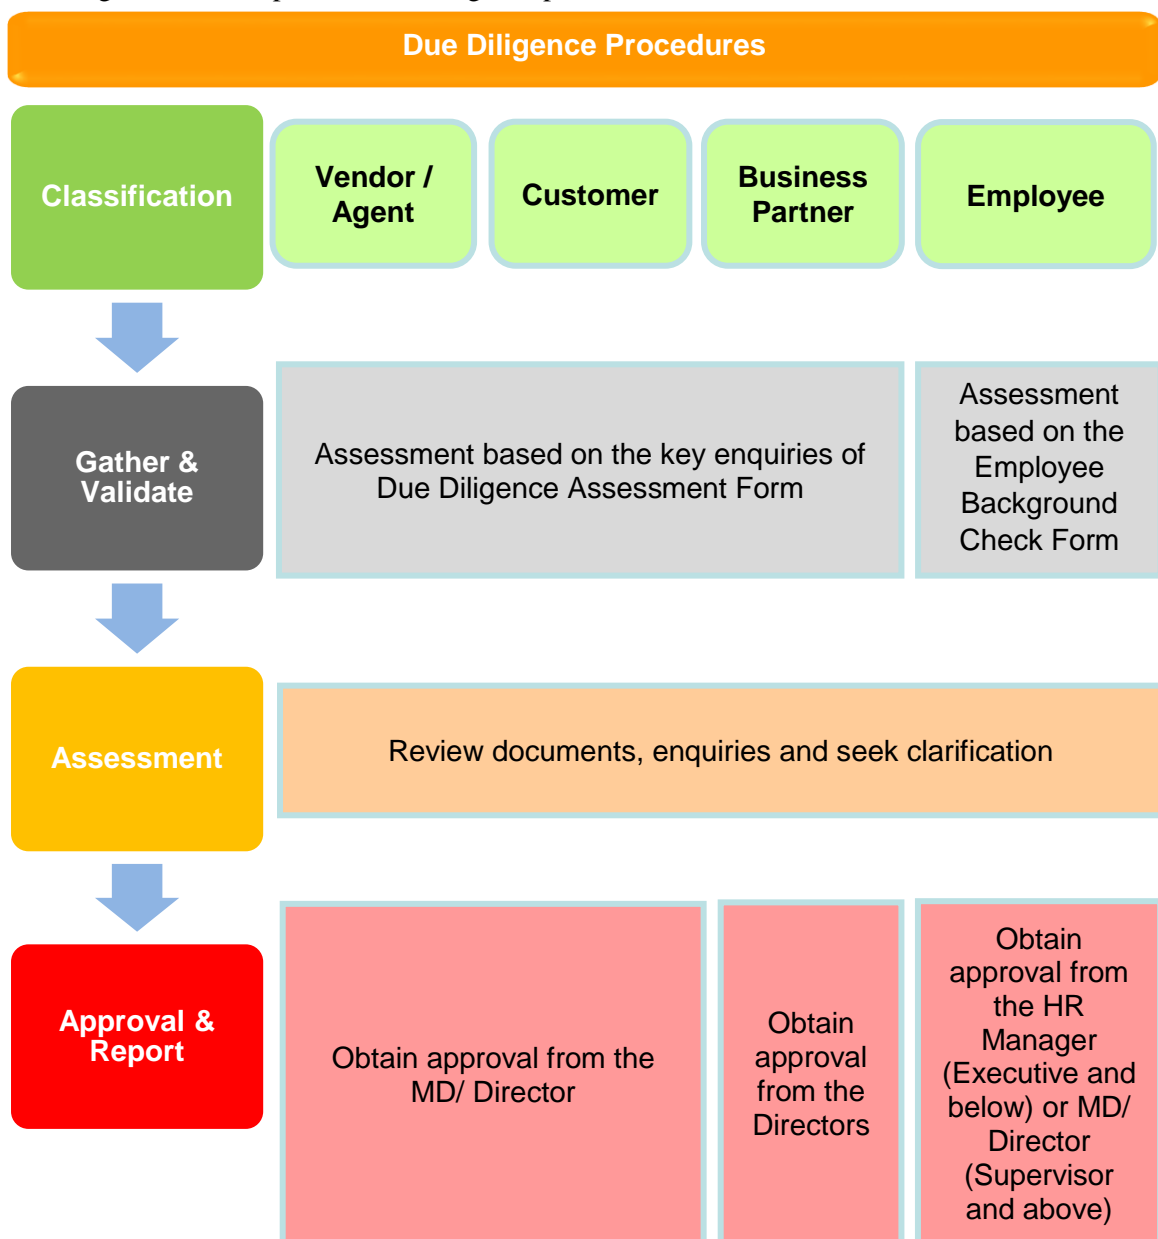

8.0 Due Diligence Procedures and Dealing with External Parties

PLANTIE Group recognises the objective of due diligence procedures on customers, business partners, vendors and employees to evaluate the risk of bribery and corruption associated with these parties. - ii. Customers;
- iii. Business partners; and
- iv. Employees.

The diagram below depicts the due diligence process flow:

8.1. Dealing with Vendors or Agents

- a. PLANTIE Group is committed to uphold the highest standard of ethics and integrity in all aspects of its procurement activities by:
 - i. Adhering to the procurement policies and procedures;
 - ii. Avoiding dealing with any vendor, sub-contractors, or agents who known or reasonably suspected of corrupt practices;
 - iii. Ensuring that all new vendors/ sub-contractors/ agents are subject to background assessment and conflict of interest check prior to registration and acceptance;
 - iv. Communicating the Policy & Guidelines requirements to vendor, sub-contractors or agents (Please refer to Appendix A for Vendor ABAC Declaration Form);
 - v. All contracts / agreement entered with vendors, sub-contractors, or agents to incorporate a provision whereby PLANTIE retains right to audit third party compliance with the Policy & Guidelines; and
 - vi. All agents are required to declare on their adherence to the Policy & Guidelines requirements via Appendix A Vendor ABAC Declaration Form.

- b. A Due Diligence Assessment Form shall be used in guiding PLANTIE Group employee to undertake an assessment on the vendors', sub-contractors', or agents' background and reputation, including their conflict of interest (Please refer to Appendix B for Due Diligence Assessment Form). The key components of vendor/ agent due diligence procedures cover the following but may vary depending on the circumstances:
 - i. Corporate profile;
 - ii. Company search via Suruhanjaya Syarikat Malaysia (“SSM”) or equivalent authorities in the respective countries of operation;
 - iii. Financial background;
